

JM Wall Of Fame Nomination Information and Requirements

Officials at John Marshall High School instituted a project in 2005 to honor persons who have significantly contributed to the John Marshall community. The program was presented to the Marshall County BOE in the spring of that year. This project is known as the John Marshall Wall of Fame.

The Wall of Fame Committee that established this project consisted of: former teachers, counselors, graduates, and long-time administrators. Future committee members shall be elected by a majority vote of the sitting committee members.

The John Marshall Wall of Fame is housed in the school's senior commons. A series of photographs and identifying nameplates are displayed on the walls of the auditorium. If your organization would like to donate to the Wall of Fame, please contact Lisa Kiss at lkiss@k12.wv.us.

The following selection procedures are then followed:

Each honoree may be a graduate of John Marshall High School or an individual who has contributed substantial service to the school. A time period of five years must have been achieved for graduates and three years after date of retirement for Marshall County Schools employees.

The Wall of Fame Committee makes the final selection of honorees. Nominations of candidates must be made by means of a nomination form.

The following criteria are considered:

- Career - (Business, Industrial & Professional)- High level of professional accomplishments in chosen profession
- Music & Fine Arts - Accomplishments at the national or international level
- Philanthropy - Substantial community service that involves continued commitment on the part of the honoree.
- Religion & Education – High level of professional accomplishments in chosen profession.
- Public Service - Long period of time, or a single, truly remarkable contribution.
- Athletic Achievement – Record- setting accomplishments.
- Other noteworthy achievements

Nominations may be submitted to: JMHS Wall of Fame Committee, c/o Lisa Kiss, Co-Chair, 1300 Wheeling Avenue, Glen Dale WV 26038. The nominations must be received by July 1, of each year.

JMHS Wall of Fame – Nomination Form

The Wall of Fame recognizes its most notable contributors, acknowledging their commitments to their communities, professions and John Marshall High School.

Nominations may be submitted at any time each year prior to the due date. All nominations and accompanying research are kept in the strictest confidence. Those not chosen for a particular year will remain on file for two additional years.
