

GFWC - WEST VIRGINIA SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABLE

The General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) is an international affiliation of clubs promotes "Living the Volunteer Spirit." GFWC - West Virginia was federated in 1904 and presently has 84 clubs across the state and 1,700+ members. The local clubs work within their communities to recognize needs and work to improve the quality of life for all.

Eligibility:

- Must be a resident of the state of West Virginia.
- Must be attending or planning to attend an institution of higher education in the state of West Virginia. If the field of study an applicant is pursuing is not available at a West Virginia institution, then an out-of-state institution is acceptable.
- Must have a cumulative high school GPA of 2.5 – 3.5.
- Must demonstrate financial need.
- Must have a demonstrated record of community service and volunteerism.

This scholarship is administered through the Parkersburg Area Community Foundation's online consolidated application process.

Application available: December 1, 2024
Application deadline: February 28, 2025

LEARN MORE AND APPLY

www.pacfwv.com/scholarships/apply